Girl Dresses as a Man.

New York, N. Y., Jan. 21.—Morton Hamilton Gray, a quiet mannered girl of 19, was arrested on the street last night because she was dressed in men's clothes. She said that she had been wearing boys' and men's clothes for the past ten years and that since she began to pose as a man she had learned to smoke both a pipe and cigars. She volunteered the information that her arrest was due to the jealousy of a New York Valley, N. Y., woman, who wanted to marry her. The young woman was released, the magistrate of the night court stating that the case presented no violation of the penal code.

TWO AMERICANS LAND IN BUNCH OF TROUBLE IN JUAREZ

"I don't remember it," said Charles Anderson in the Juarez police court this morning when accused of being used as a step ladder last night.

"I really don't remember of anybody's climbing up my back," he said. "Yet, I was drunk."

"I don't remember climbing up anybody's back," said John Johnson. "Yes, I was drunk, a little."

The two Americans were arrested back of the Silver Inn saloon on Calle Comercio about 2 o'clock this morning, according to the police. Johnson, who said he used to be a soldier at Fort Bliss, was climbing up the spiral step ladder of Anderson, who says he is a cook.

Since the locating of the climber and the climbee was in close proximity to a wall, the rear patio wall of the saloon, each was fined and they will clean Juarez streets for a thirty stretch.

MITCHIM TO BE HERE TO CONTEST BOND FORFEITURE

Man Charged With Murder of Harrel May Undergo Examination.

That J. F. Mitchim, under indictment for the murder of Monroe McClurg Harrel, will be here the first week in February, the statement of R. V. Bowden, counsel for Mitchim.

In discussing the Mitchim bond forfeiture this morning district attorney W. D. Howe said:

"The money has not yet been paid in on the bond. It is my understanding that Mitchim will come here some time during the present term of court and submit to a medical examination, in an effort to have the forfeiture set aside by showing that he has been unable to go to trial on account of physical disability."

The Mitchim trial has twice been postponed. Mitchim is at present in De Soto, Mo., where he lived prior to coming to El Paso and is under the care of physicians, it is said.

THE ELKS' CHASE FOR CHENAULT

How They Finally Landed the Man in the Twin Border Cities.

Probably there is no organization of its kind which works more for the purity of the home than the Elks.

Receiving advice from the Tucuman lodge of Elks to find Charles C. Chenaault, detective Billy Smith found him seated in a National railway train ready to leave the union station. Tuesday morning, shortly before 10 o'clock, he departed the Rock Island train arrived. And from the northern train stepped R. A. Prentice, a New Mexico attorney.

"Where is Chenaault?" asked the attorney. "He is on that train," answered the detective.

Promising to stay in El Paso, Chenaault, accompanied the attorney and the detective to a hotel. But Wednesday morning he was not here. Shortly after, Chenaault, an attorney of Tucumari, arrived with a young woman from that city, who had been in school there.

Soliciting the aid of the Mexican police, the American detective located the fugitive last night, but already a commandant of police Ponce de Leon had received a telegram from Nathan Jaffe, acting governor of New Mexico, asking that Chenaault be held pending the receipt of extradition papers. Chenaault was held.

Yesterday marriage licenses were issued to Charles C. Chenaault, of Tucumari, and Miss Beulah M. Hartman, of Las Vegas, at the county clerk's office here in El Paso.

Later the couple paid a social visit to the Mexican police chief and walked about Juarez arm in arm, finally taking a train in El Paso for some point in the United States.

Now all this was done, according to authentic information, through an Elk's lodge, which guaranteed $4000 if need be, to accomplish it. And a detective, two attorneys, and two governments were appealed to in the doing, because the girl's father is an Elk.
